Socially Responsible HR Initiative Awards

Last Wednesday evening, IMS Luxembourg received the “Socially Responsible HR Initiative Award” at the annual HR One Gala. This prize was awarded after the vote of 50 HR department representatives of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. “This award is an acknowledgement of the quality of our association which unites Luxembourg’s companies and associations that wish to support the pragmatic progression of corporate social responsibility” Christian Scharff, the president of the IMS Luxembourg, was pleased to say. He also added: “In 2009, we will do everything we can to remain at the height of deserving this trust and to develop our initiatives with our members, who now represent 35’000 employees in Luxembourg”.

It must be remembered that IMS Luxembourg is a network of Luxembourgish corporations (of all sizes and industrial sectors), which combines 45 organisations and companies that were recently joined by organisations like “Stéftung Hëllef Doheem” or the “Ville de Luxembourg”. The non-profit organisation aims to promote and develop “Corporate Social Responsibility” policies through the sharing of experiences, good practice and expertise. It also wishes to put forward methods and tools in order to concretely set up these policies.
